The ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter held nine chapter meetings (including the Annual Achievement Awards Banquet) that each averaged 149 attendees.

9. DOES THE CHAPTER, AS A CHAPTER, REGULARLY COMMUNICATE WITH LOCAL PUBLIC OFFICIALS (10 PTS):

The ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter regularly communicates with local officials by holding biannual fundraising events for legislators. During this past year, the Chapter held breakfast fundraisers for Assemblywoman Norma Torres and Assemblyman Felipe Fuentes.

The Chapter also uses its strength in numbers to make its presence known in Sacramento for the annual ACEC Legislative Visit Day. The Legislative Visit Day Committee works tirelessly to set appointments, recruit members to participate, research the candidates, compose talking point, and familiarize themselves with the ACEC CA talking points.

This year, the Chapter was able to field a team of 17 members to meet with Los Angeles County legislators, and, of the 38 legislators representing Los Angeles County, 36 legislators or their staff representatives were visited. Preparation began in November to schedule appointments with legislators. Letters were sent via fax or e-mail or both to the legislators through their schedulers to begin this process. Follow-up letters and telephone calls were initiated in December and final appointments were made just days before Legislative Visit Day in January. Prior to the visits, leaders were assigned to each team that would visit the legislator. Each team leader was e-mailed a packet of information on their legislators for the familiarization process. Each packet included a photograph, district number, district map, biographies and a history of legislation sponsored and passed by each particular legislator. Because of the large numbers of Assembly and Senate members in the Los Angeles County Chapter, the team began visiting legislators at 9:00 a.m. and finished at 4:30 p.m. with only an hour lunch break.

The Chapter Board, the Grassroots Committee and the Legislative Visit Day Committee also worked together to draft Los Angeles Chapter-specific talking points entitled “ACEC-LA Recommends Additional Transportation Funding – It should be a multifaceted approach including gas tax, user fees and P3s.”

10. NUMBER OF LOCAL CHAPTER MATCH FUNDRAISING EVENTS FOR LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES (10 PTS):

The ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter regularly communicates with local officials by holding biannual fundraising events for legislators. During the 2009-2010 year, the Chapter held two chapter-matching legislative fundraising events – one for Assemblywoman Norma Torres and the other for Assemblyman Felipe Fuentes.

Seventeen people gathered Friday August 7, 2009, for a breakfast at Psomas to support Assemblywoman Torres who serves State Assembly District 61 which includes the cities of Pomona, Ontario, Montclair and Chino. Assemblywoman Torres spoke on land development improvements to the City of Pomona during her tenure as City Council person and Mayor for the City of Pomona. She spoke about current events in Sacramento and in particular the experience of trying to achieve a balanced budget. Her presentation inspired many ACEC concerns to surface during the questions and answers period that followed. The attendees raised $2,249. With the ACEC CA match, a total contribution of $4,500 was raised for the Assemblywoman.

Fourteen people gathered on Tuesday September 29, 2009, for a breakfast at Wagner Engineering & Survey to support local Assemblyman Felipe Fuentes who serves District 39 which includes Arleta, Sylmar, San Fernando Valley, Panorama City and Sun Valley. Assemblyman Fuentes gave an introduction on his background in obtaining his MBA from Pepperdine and public service within Los Angeles, including his service under then City Councilman Alex Padilla as a field deputy. He spoke about an inspiring DWP project to develop a solar farm on DWP property at Owens Lake near Lone Pine, California. In addition to green benefits to the environment, this project would create jobs in engineering and construction. Assemblyman Fuentes also spoke about his role in governance reform including the prospect of state constitutional reform and he gave examples of special interest legislation buried within the current state constitution. The event raised $1,900 which, with the ACEC CA match, came to a total of $3,800.

Together, these events help ACEC inform and build alliances with legislators who are especially supportive of a strong business climate for private engineering and surveying firms. This is also an opportunity for members to learn of expected new state policies and how they may affect the destiny of our industry, businesses and careers.

Held in the spring of each year, the ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter's Annual Achievement Awards Banquet provides an opportunity for hundreds of chapter members and their guests to come together for an evening of networking and celebration. The highlight of this year's event was an appearance by Los Angeles Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa as the recipient of the Chapter's Legislative Achievement Award. Awards also presented at this event include the Engineering Achievement, Client of the Year, Member of the Year and Scholarships. Highlighting an emcee and owner award recipient who oversee some of the nation's most significant public works projects, this event is also the pinnacle for chapter leadership, as the installation of officers and directors occurs at the onset of the evening.

The ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter also sponsored two successful fundraising events this past year for Assemblymember Norma Torres and Assemblymember Felipe Fuentes.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES ON THE ABOVE ITEMS (0 PTS):

The 2009-2010 has been a year filled with challenges and opportunities for the ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter. Membership retention has been one of our greatest challenges in this last year with pure economic factors at play. We believe we have held our own in this respect due to the excellent monthly programs, improved benefits of membership through public liaison committees, enhanced networking opportunities and the overall community visibility of the ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter.

The success and enthusiasm within the Chapter is demonstrated by achievements including doubling our high school outreach program to 7,000 students during National Engineer's Week; awarding $25,000 in scholarships to highly-deserving engineering and land surveying students; and mounting a strong and growing grass roots, relationship-building effort with our state and local officials. Our June 10, 2010, Annual Achievement Awards Banquet — attended by more than 250 people including Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa — was a fitting culmination to a successful year of hard work!

ESSAY QUESTION: ON A SEPARATE SHEET (MAX. 3 PAGES ONLY), PLEASE PROVIDE AN ESSAY (1000 WORDS OR LESS) THAT DESCRIBES HOW YOUR CHAPTER HAS SUCCESSFULLY PROMOTED THE INDUSTRY LOCALLY AND ENHANCED PUBLIC AWARENESS OF SERVICES PROVIDED BY MEMBER FIRMS THROUGH STUDENT OUTREACH, PR, RECRUITMENT EFFORTS AND SPECIAL EVENTS. IN ADDITION, PLEASE DESCRIBE HOW YOUR CHAPTER HAS PARTICIPATED IN IMPROVING BUSINESS PRACTICES, I.E. INVOLVEMENT IN ENVIRONMENTAL ENHANCEMENTS SUCH AS EARTH DAY OR LEED. (55 PTS)

ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter 2009-2010 Golden Chapter Awards Nomination

The ACEC CA Los Angeles County Chapter consists of 80 civil and structural engineering, surveying, geotechnical engineering, and testing and inspection member firms. The majority of the members focus on transportation, water and wastewater, public infrastructure and private development.

The board of directors, comprised of five executive officers, 13 directors and four state directors, manage the Chapter. The Chapter retains an executive director who assists with Chapter management and daily operations.

PROMOTING THE ENGINEERING INDUSTRY

Legislative Visit Day participation, an extensive student outreach program, membership recruitment, and special events are examples of the many ways the Chapter promotes the engineering industry.

Student Outreach

Committed to offering opportunities for the next generation of engineers and surveyors, Chapter engagement includes student education, scholarships and internships.

National Engineering Week

As part of National Engineering Week 2010 (February 14-20), ACEC-CalSOP, in partnership with Caltrans, the City of Los Angeles and Los Angeles World Airports, conducted a “Become an Engineer” (BAE) campaign. The BAE campaign encouraged Los Angeles area high school students to pursue careers in engineering and related fields. Chapter members generously contributed their time to develop the presentation and leave behind materials; contact schools and schedule presentations; and conduct/attend two presenter training workshops. Using video, presenters depicted the routine of today’s practicing engineer. The presentations also discussed the education required to pursue a career in these fields.

This year, to accommodate an increase in presentation requests from schools, e-week outreach expanded to two weeks (February 8-20). Through 81 presentations in 42 high schools and three career fairs, volunteers reached approximately 7,000 students — an increase of nearly 50 percent from last year.

Scholarship Program

Established in 2005, the Scholarship Fund honors qualified engineering undergraduate and graduate students attending Los Angeles County colleges and universities. Each recipient demonstrates high level academic achievement from an accredited engineering program; participates in professional associations; outlines accomplishments and/or internships directly related to the practice of engineering; and provides commendations and endorsements from faculty.

Six scholarships totaling $25,000 were awarded. Recipients included:

- $6,000 – Courtney Wong, UCLA
- $6,000 – Tri Nguyen, USC
- $2,500 – Kartik Atyam, UCLA
- $2,500 – Paloma Paredes, USC
- $4,000 – Trevor McGuckin, Cal Poly Pomona
- $4,000 – Shalia Khovananth, Cal Poly Pomona

High School Internships

ACEC-CalSOP participated in the City of Los Angeles Public Works High School Internship Program (PWHiP). Chapter members conducted interviews, and employed, hosted and mentored interns. ACEC-CalSOP public sector partners included the City of Los Angeles, Los Angeles World Airports and Caltrans.

PWHiP received 507 applications from 11th and 12th grade students. After going through satellite job skills workshops and interviews at the University of Southern California campus, 64 were selected for six-week paid internships offered by 24 industry partners, 11 of which were ACEC member firms employing 16 interns.

Chapter members also mentor students as they leave PWHiP and pursue their education.

Recruitment Efforts

Recruiting efforts include welcoming non-members attendance at monthly luncheons and retention of existing members. Achieving successful luncheon programming, the Chapter's luncheon attendance has grown from 20-30 in 2005 to 50-190 this year with a total year attendance of 940.

The membership committee maintains a non-member firm attendee list. Prospective members are contacted and offered a Chapter-paid lunch.

Legislative Visit Day

The Chapter was a recognized presence at the annual ACEC Legislative Visit Day in Sacramento. Beginning in November, the Legislative Visit Day Committee worked tirelessly to set appointments, recruit member participation, research candidates, develop legislator packets, review ACEC CA talking points, and compose LA Chapter talking points. The packets were legislator specific and included a photograph, district number, district map, biography and history of legislation.

This year, 17 Chapter members visited 36 of the 38 legislators/staff representatives representing Los Angeles County.

Special Events

The Chapter's Annual Achievement Awards Banquet provides hundreds of members and guests the opportunity to enjoy an evening of networking and celebration. Awards presented include Engineering Achievement, Client of the Year, Member of the Year and Scholarships. This year, a special Legislative Achievement Award was presented to Los Angeles Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa.

Members benefit from networking opportunities at the monthly programs, learn about upcoming consulting opportunities, keep current on trends from industry experts, and interface with clients/owners. Nearly 940 attendees enjoyed the luncheons. Featured organizations included:

- California High-Speed Rail Authority
- Caltrans District 7
- City of Los Angeles
- Los Angeles Community College District
- Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority
- Metro Gold Line Foothill Extension Construction Authority
- Thomas Properties Group
- U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

IMPROVING BUSINESS PRACTICES

Liaison Committees

The Liaison Committees provide a forum for dialogue between members and owners including the City of Los Angeles, Caltrans District 7, the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority, and the ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach. These owners discuss contracting opportunities, procurement requirements, industry trends, and allow for private sector feedback on making contracting a win-win experience.

This past year, the ACEC-LA/City of Los Angeles Bureau of Engineering (LABOE) liaison committee met quarterly to encourage communication and cooperation. Issues addressed included streamlining permit and bonding close-outs; improving understanding of LABOE's available RFQ/RFP opportunities; explaining issues surrounding storm water management and mitigation; and discussing effects of the economic downturn.

At the biweekly Caltrans District 7 Liaison meetings, member firms provided comments on the new audit requirements. This critical input resulted in modifications sensitive to firm size—eliminating the need for a professional accountant that, in some cases, would be cost prohibitive.

Environmental Enhancements

Proponents of a healthful earth and sustainable projects, many members participate on the State Land Use and Environment Committee, which addresses environmental legislative issues and advocacy positions, and interfaces with appropriate state agencies.

Chapter members have been involved nationally in establishing ACEC's Land Development Coalition (LDC) which is concentrating on sustainability as a cornerstone of industry importance. LDC has grown to over 35 members from around the country, with more firms from California than any other state!

Chapter members also organized a session on LEED for Neighborhood Development presented at last Fall's ACEC national conference.
